

Infection Control Nurse

Rogers Memorial Hospital has a full-time opportunity available for a Registered Nurse to provide key leadership in advancing our health and wellness initiatives. He/she also coordinates and monitors employee health services, evaluates outcomes, and communicates findings within committee participation and community partnerships. Other responsibilities include:

- Data collection/ interpretation
- Hospital associated infections
- Infection control reporting statistics and trending
- Employee Health
- Significant exposures and reportable diseases
- Lab results/ follow-up

Successful candidate will hold current WI RN license, preferably BSN, have knowledge in microbiology and antibiotic pharmacology, CIC certification preferred, computer proficiency, understanding of Joint Commission regulations and requirements. We are a premier, non-profit health care provider offering a competitive salary and great benefit package.

EEO/MFVD

Applicants may apply online at <http://www.rogershospital.org> and click on Careers.